

I Sail a Boat

I sail a boat made of grass and leaves. My handmade boat sails in the breeze.

As I watch my boat sail away,
I think of what I've done today.

I used my imagination that's lively and free. I used the imagination God gave me.

Imagination is the best you see; you can be anything you want to be.

Today I was a pirate upon my handmade boat. Maybe tomorrow I will be a silly goat.

When I use my imagination,
I sail away to a place where only I can see... a place that is very beautiful to me.

By: Annabelle Droney

