Biography/History

Elizabeth "Lizzie" Himmeger Douglass (1876-1938) attended Peters Township schools as a child. She later attended Jefferson Academy in Canonsburg, PA where she studied to become a teacher. Lizzie taught at the Pleasant Valley, Wright, and Thompsonville Schools in Peters Township. Her sister, Sarah "Sadie"

Himmegeer (1884-1966), also taught in the township's one-room schools, including Bower Hill and McMurray.

In 1901, Lizzie married George Wilson Douglass(1878-1963). The couple had six children together. Five of the six children – Milton (born 1902), Minnie (born 1904), Sarah “Elizabeth” (born 1907), Bella (born 1913), and George Jr. (born 1917) - became teachers. Another son – Homer (born 1912) - became a diesel mechanic.

The family attended Peters Creek United Presbyterian Church.
